

Criteria for College-Level Action Projects at GRCC

- Project implementation requires coordination across two or more departments
- Project requires significant resources to implement (either staff or financial)
- Project has clearly identified outcomes that can be tracked
- Project is directly related to a strategic plan goal and/or objective
- Successful implementation will result in significant outcomes of lasting value to GRCC students and the community (bang for buck)