6.23 Misconduct Policy

I. Policy Section

6.0 Human Resources

II. Policy Subsection

6.23 Misconduct

III. Policy Statement

Grand Rapids Community College employees must adhere to ethical standards and principles to preserve the College’s reputation and integrity in the community. Misconduct that violates the law, undermines the integrity of the College, and creates tension in the workplace and academic environment and potential friction between employees and/or students will not be tolerated.

IV. Reason for the Policy

The purpose of the Misconduct Policy is to outline what employee activities constitute misconduct that would interfere with GRCC’s highest standards of excellence and integrity, and to notify employees of potential ramifications of policy violations.

V. Entities Affected by this Policy

All Grand Rapids Community College employees

IX. Definitions

A. Misconduct and Theft: Listing all forms of behavior that are considered unacceptable in the workplace is not possible. The following are examples of infractions of rules of conduct that may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. The list is not intended to be exhaustive:

1. Violations of GRCC Policies
2. Harming or threatening to harm other employees, students, vendors, visitors or property belonging to any of these parties.
3. Inappropriate removal or possession of property
4. Working under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs
5. Fighting or threatening violence in the workplace
6. Gambling or bookmaking on College property or in College vehicles
7. Smoking in designated non-smoking areas
8. Possession of dangerous or unauthorized materials, such as explosives or firearms, in the workplace
9. Unauthorized use of telephones, mail system or other employer-owned equipment
10. Conviction of a felony while employed

B. Zero Tolerance Misconduct: The following forms of verified intentional misconduct constitute grounds for immediate termination of employment at GRCC. The list is not intended to be exhaustive:

1. Stealing from the College, students, clients or fellow employees
2. Falsification of payroll records
3. Falsification of employment applications or resumes or any other College forms
4. Possession, distribution, sale, transfer or use of alcohol or illegal drugs in the workplace, while on duty or while operating employer-owned vehicles or equipment
5. Failure to notify supervisor (or applicable faculty absence line) of unexcused absences of three consecutive days. Unexcused absences of three or more consecutive days will be considered job abandonment.

X. Procedures

A. Although it is not possible to specify every action that might qualify as misconduct, this policy sets forth the ones which most frequently present problems. If an employee has any question whether an action or proposed course of conduct would qualify as misconduct, he or she should immediately contact the Executive Director of Human Resources to obtain advice on the issue.

B. Disciplinary action for failure to observe any of the above guidelines may include, but not necessarily in progressive order:

1. Verbal reprimand
2. Written reprimand
3. Suspension without pay
4. Termination from Employment

C. The College reserves the right to take legal action to recover any financial loss suffered by the College as a result of the activity of the employee. The College reserves the right to impose discipline it deems appropriate, given the facts and circumstances of each situation.

1. Supervisors must report all recommended discipline to the Executive Director of Human Resources to ensure consistent responses to violations.

3. Grand Rapids Community College reserves the right to search College property, including emails or any other communications using College resources, at any time without consent. The College may request a search of personal property at the worksite or locked company property assigned to an individual if there is reasonable suspicion that evidence of illegal or prohibited activities reside therein. Refusal of such a request may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.
